POLICY NO. 108

SUBJECT: STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

I. PURPOSE

To establish the standards, rules, and procedures under which the Board members shall perform their duties.

II. POLICY CONTENT

All of the powers of the Cooperative may be exercised by the Board of Trustees except those conferred upon the members by law, the Certificate of Incorporation, or the Cooperative's Bylaws. This policy establishes certain standards under which such powers will be exercised in the best interests of the Cooperative.

A. General Conduct of Board Members

Board members shall conduct themselves, personally and professionally, in accordance with the highest ethical standards.

B. Conduct with Respect to Fellow Board Members

Regardless of the personal relations or differences between Board members, they should respect each other in the following ways:

1. Each Board member should allow ample opportunity for every other Board member to speak on any matter being considered by the Board of Trustees and listen carefully to the opinions and factual observations of the other Board members.
2. Except when in the best interest of the Cooperative, Board members shall not reveal differences of position among Board members on matters considered and acted upon by the Board of Trustees, except to other Board members or the General Manager. This standard applies to informal as well as formal communications.

C. Board Member Access to Cooperative Information

The President shall approve a Board member's request to obtain access to information that is reasonably germane to his/her responsibilities as a Board member and is requested for a proper purpose. The President shall take such actions as are necessary to provide a timely response to the Board member's request. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Board members shall obtain guidance and access from the Cooperative's legal Counsel if the request would pertain to concerns of actual or potential criminal activity involving the President.

Access to Cooperative information is subject to the following conditions:

Mr. Joseph Herrera
General Manager
Socorro Electric Cooperative, Inc.
PO Box H

Socorro, NM 87801

RE: Policy No. 108, Trustee Standards of Conduct

Dear Joseph:

During the board's recent consideration of proposed Policy No. 108, Trustee Standards of Conduct, one of the trustees expressed concern that the policy attempted to control "elected officials" and interfered with constitutionally protected free speech.

In our opinion, however, and for the reasons set forth below, the policy represents a proper exercise of self-governance and would not be subject to legal challenge under the United States Constitution.

Policy No. 108 Advances the Statutory Goal of "Good Management"

As a private membership corporation, and consistent with its statutory mandate, Socorro Electric Cooperative, Inc., "aims to make electric energy available to its members at the lowest cost consistent with sound economy and good management." Policy No. 108 advances the goal of "good management" by establishing baseline standards of professionalism for trustees to follow in the performance of their duties.

Socorro Electric Cooperative is a Private Entity

The corporation's legal right to implement the policy is anchored to its status as a private corporation, as opposed to an arm of government.¹ The inherently private nature of the corporation is amply demonstrated by, for example, the corporation's own election rules – only members that have applied for and have been accepted into membership are permitted to vote in trustee elections. Indeed, such members are entitled to vote regardless of their eligibility or ineligibility to vote in general public elections. Conversely, other non-member residents of the community, regardless of whether they live in the service territory and/or make use of electric energy from the corporation, are strictly prohibited from voting in elections for trustees. In short, the corporation is not a division of federal, state or local government and trustees are not "public officials."

Constitutional Concerns

Policy No. 108 does not raise any First Amendment² constitutional concerns. The First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America states the following:

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

Although the Amendment plainly restricts Congress from limiting the public's right to free speech, and while oftentimes misunderstood, the Amendment does not limit the ability of private corporations to establish their own rules concerning the internal governance of the Board of Trustees.

Requirements and Enforceability of Policy

The proposed policy requires trustees to abide by ethical standards, avoid unnecessary strife and conflict, protect confidential information, maintain loyalty to the corporation's interests, conduct themselves according to recognized principles of good faith and fair dealing, and avoid harassing or discriminating against others.

Under Robert's Rules of Order, any violation of these standards would be rightly addressed through a "motion to censure," which is a main motion expressing strong disapproval or reprimand, subject to adoption by a majority vote. Mirroring this specific guidance, the policy provides the following:

The Board of Trustees shall be responsible for the enforcement of this policy and may take such actions as are reasonable to assure compliance, including, but not limited to censure, and sanctions appropriate to any violation of this policy by a Board Member.

² We will presume the trustee intended to reference the First Amendment, as opposed to the Second Amendment, which addresses "the right to keep and bear arms."

Mr. Joseph Herrera

Otherwise, if left unaddressed, the conduct could reflect poorly on the organization, bringing it into disrepute through inference that unprofessional conduct is somehow condoned by other fiduciaries of the organization.

Other Observations

Finally, on a policy level, aside from the point that corporate "free speech" concerns do not raise viable legal concerns, such protests against the proposed policy would tend to ring hollow since admonishment by others is likewise an expression of opinion and speech.

Conclusion

Thank you for your inquiry. We recommend implementation of Policy No. 108 to promote good governance and thereby serve the interests of the corporation's members.

Please let me know if you have further comments, questions or concerns.

Very truly yours,

- A. To provide general guidance to Board members and the General Manager in the performance of their duties and responsibilities for the Cooperative.
- B. To assure the high standards of integrity, impartiality, and conduct necessary for maintaining public confidence in the operations of the Cooperative.
- C. To assure compliance with the standards specified in the Bylaws of the Cooperative relating to a Board member's business and financial interests.

II. POLICY CONTENT

Board members and the General Manager must avoid activities that create a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest.

A "conflict of interest" exists when a Board member or the General Manager has a personal interest, or may reasonably appear to have a personal interest, in a matter of such a nature and magnitude that a conflict exists between the personal interest and the Cooperative's interest that could potentially cause an inability to exercise independent and objective judgment on the matter. "Personal interests" may not technically involve the Board member or the General Manager but may involve relatives, business associates, or other individuals or organizations with which he/she is closely associated.

The following statements will guide the members of the Board of Trustees and the General Manager in the management of the affairs of the Cooperative.

A. Use of Office

They shall not use, or reasonably appear to use, their respective offices or position for private gain for themselves or for other individuals or organizations with which they are associated.

B. Use of Information

They shall not use, or reasonably appear to use, inside information for private gain, either by direct action or by counsel, recommendations, or suggestions to other individuals or organizations with which they are associated.

C. Gain from Beneficiary Organizations

They shall not receive or solicit, or reasonably appear to receive or solicit, from beneficiary organizations, related organizations, or other individuals having business with the Cooperative, any gift, loan, favor or gratuity, either for themselves or any other individuals or organizations with which they are associated, that could either influence or reasonably create the appearance of influencing decisions concerning the Cooperative or its interests.

D. Decisions Which Pose a Conflict of Interest

Trustees and the General Manager shall make full disclosure to the Board of Trustees of any facts indicating a conflict of interest. They may request an opinion of the Cooperative's General Counsel before taking such action. Trustees shall disqualify themselves from voting on a decision posing a conflict of interest or creating the appearance of a conflict of interest.

E. Business Ethics

1. Trustees and the General Manager must not, in any way, be employed by or financially interested in an enterprise that is in competition with the Cooperative.
2. A Trustee or a Trustee's company may be allowed to sell materials, supplies, equipment or vehicles to the Cooperative only if at least three bids are submitted to the Cooperative for any such sale and only if the Trustee or his/her business has submitted the lowest bid.
3. The General Manager shall develop a policy on business ethics which will set forth the intent of the Board of Trustees concerning conduct of employees in maintaining high standards of integrity, impartiality, and conduct necessary to maintain member and public confidence in the Cooperative.

F. Disclosures

Each year, the Ethics Committee shall review whether any current or former officer, Trustee, or key employee:

1. Has a direct business relationship with the Cooperative or an indirect business relationship with the Cooperative requiring disclosure on Schedule L of Form 990;

Did not serve as a trustee during the past 5 years and Received more than $10,000 of reportable compensation in his/her capacity as a former director/trustee. Reportable compensation is generally defined as amounts that were reported, or should have been reported, on form 1099-MISC, Box 7 as “Non-employee compensation”.
 - b. For Form 990 reporting and for purposes of Schedule L, a key employee is an employee that meets all three of the following:
$150,000 Test – Receives reportable compensation from the organization and all related organizations in excess of $150,000 for the calendar year ending with or within the organization's tax year.

Responsibility Test - . The employee: a. has responsibilities, powers or influence over the organization as a whole similar to those of officers, directors, or trustees; b. manages a discrete segment or activity of the organization that represents 10% or more of the activities, assets, income, or expenses of the organization, as compared to the organization as a whole; or c. has or shares authority to control or determine 10% or more of the organization's capital expenditures, operating budget, or compensation for employees.

Top 20 Test. Is one of the 20 employees (that satisfy the $150,000 Test and Responsibility Test) with the highest reportable compensation from the organization and related organizations for the calendar year ending with or within the organization's tax year

SUBJECT: ETHICS AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST IN RELATIONSHIPS WITH VENDORS

I. PURPOSE

To provide a guide to Trustees so that they may avoid relationships with vendors that are not in the best interest of the Cooperative or that could be interpreted not to be in the best interest of the Cooperative.

II. POLICY CONTENT

Trustees should not place themselves in a situation or a relationship with a vendor where the Trustee's actions are not in the best interest of the Cooperative, or could reasonably be interpreted as not being in the best interest of the Cooperative, without prior approval from the Board following full disclosure.

III. PROVISIONS

A. Outside Business Interests

Possible conflicts of interest relating to a Trustee's outside business interests include, but are not limited to:

1. ownership, including ownership of stock, in whole or in part, either directly or through a relative or agent, of vendor companies;
2. relatives employed by or owning vendor companies. (The nature of the relationship between individuals and the position of the relative with the vendor company can influence the extent of any possible conflict of interest.);
3. direct employment or retention as a consultant by any vendor company; and
4. officerships and trusteeships in vendor companies. (Officerships or trusteeships in national, state-wide, material supply or service cooperatives are excluded.)

B. Trustees or Former Trustees as Vendors or Subcontractors

Purchase orders and subcontracts may not be awarded to a Trustee or former Trustee or to a partnership or corporation in which a Trustee or Former Trustee is a principal or major stockholder unless there has been full disclosure, the interested Trustee does not vote on the decision, and there has been competitive bidding for the order or award.

C. Gifts, Favors, and Entertainment

It is the policy of the Cooperative that gifts, favors, and excessive entertainment have no place in the conduct of business and should be discouraged. Accordingly, Trustees are expected to:

1. adopt the Cooperative policy as their own and make this policy known by their actions, communications, and deeds; and
2. courteously decline or return any excessive gift, favor, or offer of entertainment. It is recognized that it is common trade practice to offer advertising novelties of insignificant value. These advertising novelties are acceptable. Whether or not an item can be considered an advertising novelty depends on the degree of prominence in which the vendor's name or trademark is displayed and the value of the item. Tickets for baseball, basketball, and football games and all other forms of entertainment may be accepted, if not excessive, and not to exceed $100.00 in the totality of cash value. A perishable gift, if it is excessive, may be contributed to a charitable organization in the name of the supplier. The supplier should receive written notification of the donation.

D. Business Meals

Business-oriented luncheon and dinner engagements with suppliers are discouraged. If a Trustee does participate in a lunch or dinner engagement with a supplier, the engagement should be conducted in a manner so that the Trustee does not feel obligated to the supplier as a result.

E. Financial Dealings with Suppliers

Trustees must avoid any financial dealings, direct or indirect, with suppliers or their representatives including, but not limited to:

1. loans;
2. gambling or participating in contests;
3. investment in supplier companies;
4. use of real or personal property of a vendor, vendor's employee, or vendor's representative; and
5. business or investment dealings with a vendor, vendor's employee, or vendor's representative, such as joint ownership of investment real estate, joint ownership of other companies, and so forth.

F. Trips to Vendor Facilities

Suppliers should not be permitted to pay for hotel and travel expenses of Trustees.

G. Contact with Vendors

It is the responsibility of the General Manager and staff of the Cooperative to deal with Vendors. Trustees shall not contact Vendors regarding the business of the Cooperative unless requested or directed by the General Manager or the Board of Trustees.

IV. RESPONSIBILITY

The Board of Trustees is responsible for the administration of this policy.

Examples of such activities may include but are not limited to: membership on boards of other companies; an active interest in the ownership and management, in whole or in part, of other companies; and serving as independent consultants.

Trustees must refrain from outside activities that might, in any way, either detract from the Trustee's performance or effectiveness or create a conflict of interest. Therefore, no Trustee may place himself/herself into a non-Cooperative business relationship, investment, or other activity where his/her actions are not in the best interests of the Cooperative unless prior approval has been obtained from the Board after full disclosure.

III. PROVISIONS

- A. A Trustee's outside activities must not create a conflict of interest with the Trustee's responsibilities to the Cooperative.
- B. Trustees are expected to exercise discretion and good judgment in determining whether ethics and/or conflict of interest issues arise as a result of their non-Cooperative business activities. Whenever there is any question as to a possible conflict, Trustees should submit details of proposed non-Cooperative business activities to the Board for its approval before becoming involved in the activity.
- C. This policy does not apply to activities, memberships, officerships, or Trusteeships in utility industry organizations, whether national, state, or local.

POLICY NO. 114

SUBJECT: BOARD OF TRUSTEES-GENERAL MANAGER INTERRELATIONSHIPS

I. PURPOSE

To establish the policy governing the fundamental relationship between the Board of Trustees and the General Manager, including the principles involving the delegation of authority.

II. POLICY CONTENT

It is recognized that good management is the most essential factor in the success of the Cooperative. In exercising such management, the Board of Trustees shall establish policy, approve plans and programs, and delegate authority to the General Manager to carry out such plans, programs, and policies and to manage the day to day activities of the Cooperative.

III. PROVISIONS

- A. The Board of Trustees recognizes its responsibility to establish policies, approve plans, and delegate authority to the General Manager to execute and carry out its plans, programs, and policies. The General Manager shall, among other things, have the authority to hire capable personnel within the approved wage and salary plan, establish schedules, train and supervise employees, and, when necessary, replace them.
- B. All policies of the Board of Trustees shall be promulgated at regular and special meetings with the Board of Trustees acting collectively.
- C. The Board of Trustees recognizes that, should any Trustee undertake in a private conversation with others to make commitments for the Board of Trustees, the Trustee becomes involved in a severe breach of policy which might disrupt the entire organization. A Board member may be subject to rebuke from his/her fellow Board members should he/she attempt to make commitments unofficially for the Board of Trustees. Therefore, the Cooperative's President, or in his/her absence the Vice President, shall be the spokesperson for the Board of Trustees, except when otherwise authorized by the Board of Trustees.
- D. Trustees shall refrain, as individuals, from discussing management problems with the personnel of the Cooperative, except in cases where the Board of Trustees may deem it necessary to confer with personnel at regular or special meetings of the Board of Trustees.

- E. It shall be distinctly understood that the flow of authority for the management of the Cooperative shall pass through the General Manager and the General Manager shall be the connecting link between the Board of Trustees and the employees. The Board of Trustees shall require complete information from the General Manager concerning all matters in connection with the management of the Cooperative as set forth in Board policies.
- F. The Board of Trustees recognizes that efficient management of the Cooperative can exist only through mutual understanding and complete cooperation between the Board of Trustees and the General Manager. The General Manager is expected to produce results and give an account to the Board of Trustees of his/her stewardship. His/her performance cannot be optimized unless he/she is given latitude to exercise independent judgment in executing policies of the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees acknowledges that obligation and provides the General Manager the latitude of judgment and discretion and expects faithful performance in carrying out all of the policies of the Board of Trustees.
- G. The Board of Trustees recognizes its responsibility for the employment of a General Manager and further recognizes the additional responsibility for a systematic appraisal of his/her performance in order that growth, development, and effective improvements are encouraged. The Board of Trustees may, at its discretion, enter into a contract for the services of a General Manager.
- H. The General Manager shall report to the Board as a whole, and not to the individual Trustees. For day-to-day communications, the General Manager shall report to the President and receive direction from the President. If any Trustee has concerns involving the performance of the General Manager, Trustee shall address these concerns to the President or to the entire Board during Executive Session, rather than to the General Manager. It shall be the responsibility of the President to counsel the General Manager, as needed.
- I. Discussions concerning the General Manager's performance or aptitude for the position shall be conducted in Executive Session.

IV. RESPONSIBILITY

- A. The President of the Board of Trustees is responsible for inviting the attention of Board members to non-adherence to this policy.
- B. The Board of Trustees is responsible for the systematic appraisal of the General Manager's performance.
- C. The Board of Trustees shall be guided by the results of the most recent performance appraisal when evaluating the General Manager's salary.

POLICY NO. 120

SUBJECT: WAGE AND SALARY ADMINISTRATION FOR EMPLOYEES NOT COVERED BY A COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT

I. PURPOSE

- A. To establish salaries that will attract and retain qualified personnel and encourage strong performance, growth, and development.
- B. To provide employees with an assurance that their salaries compare favorably with what is paid for other positions having similar effort, duties and responsibilities within the area that the Cooperative recruits. It is recognized that some positions will involve different recruitment areas, and considerations involving market rates in those areas, other than the Cooperative's immediate labor market area.
- C. To assure both management and employees that performance will be appraised systematically, fairly, and, consistently, and that each employee will be provided with the advice, counsel, assistance and/or training necessary to enable the employee to develop, improve, and advance within the Cooperative and within demonstrated capabilities.
- D. To enable management to determine more accurate budget requirements and training needs and to engage in such conduct on a planned and controlled basis; further, to permit the Board of Trustees to more accurately determine budget requirements and long range planning for salary and benefits costs.
- E. To determine salary increases and promotions on the basis of demonstrated individual performance.
- F. To maintain consistency in application of general pay practices throughout the Cooperative.

II. POLICY CONTENT

Consistent with the provisions of this policy, the Board of Trustees delegates certain authority respecting the development and implementation of wage and salary administration to the General Manager.

III. PROVISIONS

It shall be the policy of the Cooperative to maintain a systematic Wage and Salary Schedule for employees not covered by a collective bargaining agreement.

- A. The Wage and Salary Schedule will:
1. Reward superior performance of the employees in the fulfillment of their duties and responsibilities for the Cooperative.
 2. Recognize continued, loyal service to the Cooperative.
 3. Provide the impetus for the employees to increase productivity on the job and to become better skilled in the activities related to their job duties and performance.
- B. The Board shall be responsible for hiring and retaining a Wage and Salary Plan consultant. Every other year, the consultant shall evaluate the existing Plan under procedures that generally recognize increases or decreases in the Consumer Price Index (All Cities, US Average), the Employment Cost Index, and other federal or business indices that may assist the consultant in evaluating the appropriateness of a recommendation to increase or decrease the rate range levels. In addition, the consultant shall evaluate labor market conditions that dictate changes in specific job positions or categories utilizing the studies of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association, the New Mexico Rural Electric Cooperative Association, and such other statewide surveys as may be obtainable within the electric cooperative industry. Where possible, the studies should include information obtainable from other employers within the Cooperative's immediate labor market area for those positions involving more localized recruitment. - C. The consultant's study and recommendation shall, if possible, be presented prior to June 30 of every other year simultaneously to the General Manager and the Board of Trustees. After the study, the General Manager shall make a recommendation to the Board of Trustees which may include adoption of the consultant's proposal, or recommendation of a different proposal – either higher or lower than the consultant's recommendation. The Board of Trustees will subsequently determine the adjustment.
- D. The actual design of the Wage and Salary Schedule as between “inside” and “outside” employees, and “non-exempt” and “exempt” shall be determined by the consultant, along with the General Manager. The Board of Trustees shall be informed concerning the nature of the Plan and how the various groups of employees are considered.
- E. Periodically, the General Manager and the Wage and Salary Plan consultant shall review and evaluate the duties, responsibilities and requirements of the various

- F. The Wage and Salary Plan Schedule shall also implement a procedure for annually evaluating an employee's performance.
- G. The Wage and Salary Schedule shall specifically address issues involving the Apprentice Lineman Training Program and the Meter Technician Training Program, establishing evaluation time segments for the apprentices and providing for pay adjustments as the apprentice completes a segment in the Apprentice Program.
- H. Employees will be evaluated each year and will thereafter be eligible for a market value adjustment effective the first pay period in January, based on the results of the individual's performance evaluation. The foregoing assumes the Board of Trustees has approved a recommendation of budgetary amounts for this purpose.

IV. RESPONSIBILITY

- A. The Board of Trustees shall be responsible for approving any changes to the Wage and Salary Plan and Ranges, excepting revisions that may be required relative to a position ranking in relation to other positions within the job group and for individual adjustments that are deemed appropriate by the General Manager.
