

EMF Reading (in mG- milligauss) of Common Appliances at 1 Foot Distance

*TWACS-(Two-Way Automated Communication System) TWACS utilizes existing power lines to transmit readings from meters to the utility substation and then back to the utility for processing. This is done via a TWACS module within the new digital meter.